Voice

As our workforce and workplace transitions, BPW is on the frontline, helping women push toward success, helping women and men to navigate a new and equal world both at work and home, and demanding a position of equality from our local, state, national and world leaders. Help make our numbers strong and our voices heard.

Leadership

From small business to our civic leaders, women are leading their communities in every aspect of life. BPW recognizes their leadership. Join with us to advance women's rights and the careers and lives of individual women.

Since 1919: A Brief History of BPW

The National Federation of Business and Professional Women (BPW/USA) was organized in July 1919 in St. Louis to promote the interest of business and professional women.

August 1920 the 19th amendment passes and women acquire the right to vote.

1930 International Federation of Business and Professional Women formed in Geneva, Switzerland.
